Errors & Omissions Insurance Policy

Doc 2018

Approved 2019.09.22

The International Fellowship of Chaplains, a DBA of Frontline Chaplains International, Inc., carries liability insurance and errors & omissions insurance coverage for every I.F.O.C. Chaplain that covers them when all of the conditions below are met:

1. The I.F.O.C. Chaplain has taken the I.F.O.C. Chaplaincy Training (pre-requisite for credentials).
2. The I.F.O.C. Chaplain has active in-date credentials.
3. The I.F.O.C. Chaplain is identified as an I.F.O.C. Chaplain per the I.F.O.C. Uniform Manual including; the appropriate shirt, pants, belt and shoes. The uniform manual is posted online at www.IFOC.org/pdf/UniformPolicy2.pdf.
4. The I.F.O.C. Chaplain is performing the duties of a volunteer chaplain, as taught in the Chaplaincy Training Class, other I.F.O.C. training class, or endorsed training, and is not exceeding the skills and content taught all while performing duties related to the mission of the I.F.O.C..

The I.F.O.C. Chaplain would not be covered by the I.F.O.C. insurance if they are employed by an agency as a paid Chaplain, if they exceed the scope of training as defined in #4 above, or if the I.F.O.C. Chaplain starts their own business or ministry which is separate from the International Fellowship of Chaplains, Inc. While acting in any of these circumstances the Chaplain ceases to be a volunteer Chaplain and the I.F.O.C. Chaplain is strongly encouraged to either obtain additional insurance that covers them in these circumstances or to ensure that the ministry, agency, or employer they are serving under carries adequate insurance for the role that the Chaplain fulfills in that agency.

If one of these circumstances applies to you then the I.F.O.C. insurance still covers you during the time you are serving as a volunteer Chaplain in other areas that meet the numbers 1-4 listed above.
